LETTER of APPRECIATION

Respected Sir,

On behalf of all the students of Z.P.H. School - Kanaparru (school name), we are pleased to appreciate specially to your NSS volunteers for the excellent job that your staff & NSS volunteers have done over special camp by motivating our students and helping our students during plantation. Our students learnt from these activities and gained knowledge during interaction with your students.

You and your employees & students should take great pride in this accomplishment.

Thank you and request you to help our students in all future endeavors.

Yours sincerely

Respected Sir,

Thank you so much for conducting various Social Works in Our Village, Kanaparru. We are very much pleased with your NSS volunteers participation in the events like Plantation, Clean & Green Awareness Camps etc

It is really appreciable that your student volunteers are learning the Social Activities in early age of their life, which make them good Citizens in this society. Our villagers also expressed their gratitude for doing various useful activities in this village. We can say that your students learnt about society by helping others. We further request you to continue these type of Social activities by your students for the benefit of needy villagers.

Thank You.
