RESOLUTION

06-07-2022

It is resolved that committee for Anti-Ragging has been constituted with the following members for the academic year 2022-2023. The committee will finalize the following Role and Responsibilities. The committee shall meet regularly and the problems of the students shall be resolved.

Agenda:

1. Regarding Complaints Received on Ragging Issues:

- Resolution: The committee reviewed the complaints received concerning ragging issues. It was decided that a thorough investigation will be conducted into each complaint to ascertain the validity and nature of the incidents reported. A dedicated task force will be formed to handle these complaints promptly and confidentially. Regular updates on the status of these investigations will be communicated to the committee.

2. Dress Code for the Students:

- Resolution: The committee has approved the implementation of a formal dress code for all students. The dress code aims to promote a professional and respectful environment on campus. Specific guidelines will be issued detailing acceptable attire, and these will be communicated to all students and staff. Any non-compliance will be addressed through appropriate disciplinary measures.

3. Formulation of Squad to Check Ragging Issues in Campus:

- Resolution: A dedicated squad will be established to actively monitor and address ragging issues on campus. This squad will consist of faculty members, security personnel, and student representatives. Their responsibilities will include regular patrols, vigilance during campus events, and immediate intervention in case of ragging incidents. The squad will also be responsible for creating awareness among students regarding the zero-tolerance policy towards ragging.

The meeting was adjourned with a commitment to ensuring a safe and respectful environment for all students. Follow-up actions and further updates will be provided as needed.

ANTI RAGGING

Ragging in any form, whether inside or outside the college premises, is strictly prohibited. To ensure a peaceful atmosphere in and around the College, including the Canteen, Library, and Hostels, an Anti-Ragging Committee comprising faculty and staff members has been formed.

- AICTE Anti-Ragging Notification
- UGC Regulations on Curbing Ragging in Higher Education
- Anti-Ragging Affidavit (Proforma)
- College Anti-Ragging Committee
- AICTE Anti-Ragging Public Notice

The college has implemented AICTE/UGC norms to prevent ragging and ensure a 100% ragging-free environment:

- Established an Anti-Ragging Committee comprising faculty and staff members.
- Allotted responsibilities to staff members across various areas of the college and hostels to prevent ragging (e.g., departmental buildings, canteen, library, parking areas, playgrounds, and hostels).
- Conducted widespread awareness campaigns through flexi banners, meetings, and notice boards in the college, canteen, hostel premises, and surrounding areas.
- Organized awareness programs through meetings with students.

Prohibition of Ragging in Educational Institutions Act 26 of 1997, enacted by the Legislative Assembly.

Salient Features:

- Ragging within or outside any Educational Institution is prohibited.
- Ragging means doing an act which causes or is likely to cause insult or annoy or fear or apprehension or threat intimidation or outrage or injury to a student.

RAPID RESPONSE TEAM

The roles and responsibilities of a Rapid Response Team (RRT) typically include:

1. Responding promptly to medical emergencies on campus, such as cardiac arrests, severe allergic reactions, or other critical incidents.
2. Assessing the situation and providing immediate medical assistance to stabilize the patient until further medical help arrives.
3. Coordinating with campus security, local emergency services, and relevant campus personnel to ensure a cohesive response to emergencies.
4. Providing education and training to campus staff, faculty, and students on emergency response protocols, including CPR and first aid training.
5. Communicating effectively with campus stakeholders, including administrators, residence staff, and students, to disseminate emergency information and updates.
6. Offering support and follow-up care to individuals involved in emergencies, including students, staff, and witnesses.
7. Contributing to the development and review of campus emergency response policies and procedures to ensure they are up-to-date and effective.
8. Organizing awareness campaigns and events to promote campus safety and emergency preparedness among the college community.
9. Collecting data on emergency incidents and conducting analysis to identify trends and areas for improvement in emergency response protocols.

Overall, the Rapid Response Team plays a crucial role in ensuring the safety and well-being of the college community by responding swiftly and effectively to any emergencies and supporting a culture of preparedness and safety on campus.
